The author of the study on Balkan unity, which recently appeared as a cyclostyle manuscript, Constantin PAPANACE, was in Rome until 6 months ago, when he went to Argentina where he now lives. He is supposed to be a fairly well-known Rumanian historian who is chiefly interested in modern history and contemporary politics. He is said to be merely a sympathizer, not a member of the Iron Guards (Guardie de Ferro). In the past, he was, supposedly, a follower of ANTONESCU.
